Since 1936, guests have enjoyed Cunard’s long-standing tradition of intimate luxury within the elegant Grill Suites. The Grills heritage began when guests aboard Queen Mary paid for an evening of dancing and dining in the sophisticated Verandah Grill. Today, those seeking more refined experiences at sea enjoy the personal havens provided by the immaculate Queens Grill and Princess Grill Suites. Unwind in sophistication with impeccable touches of ‘White Star Service’ and dine in exclusive restaurants where every meal is a culinary adventure. Within these spacious suites, you’ll find the perfect setting to appreciate the finer things in life or celebrate that special occasion.

Cunard is proud to have received these prestigious accolades:
Whether you're looking for a vacation focused on exploration, relaxation, or perhaps both, our grand Queens are the ideal setting to embark on new journeys, or rediscover previous destinations. With nearly endless opportunities to try something new, each day on board becomes a brand new adventure. From watercolour painting on Queen Elizabeth to fencing on Queen Victoria, chances to brush up on existing talents or try your hand at new ones are ever-present.

For those who prefer to pick up the pace before indulging in the evening's offerings, our well-appointed gym and fitness classes will help to keep you guilt free. Other opportunities for cultivating the mind are found in our popular Cunard Insights® enrichment programme. We've had the pleasure of welcoming aboard famous authors, musicians, journalists, politicians and even the occasional astronaut.

As the sun sets, events on board become even grander. Take in a show at the Royal Court Theatre or dance the night away on one of the largest dance floors at sea on Queen Mary 2. Whatever the event, delight in the chance to dress for the occasion. With such variety, you'll always be poised for an evening of your liking.
